

WEAVER DOES NOT WAVER.

Says He is Still Mayor of Philadelphia and Will Exercise the Rights of His Office

INJUNCTION CAN'T PREVENT IT

Senator Pearson and Commissioner Durham Hold a Conference—Mass Meeting Arranged for Philadelphia, May 24.—The gas lease fight was carried into the courts today, and in consequence the two directors appointed by Mayor Weaver last evening are out of office, and the directors who were dismissed have again taken up the duties of their positions. Late in the day Mayor Weaver, accompanied by former Judge James Gay Gordon, went to New York for consultation with Elihu Root, the mayor's special counsel. What the next move will be cannot be foretold. The leaders of the Republican organization announce that their lines remain unbroken, that the gas lease will be passed over the mayor's veto next week, and that the lease will be put into operation. The city employees felt much relieved as the day wore on to learn that the mayor had taken no further action with regard to the removal of the heads of other departments. The first move of the day was the appearance before Judge Robert Ralston of attorneys for Peter E. Costello and David J. Smyth, the dismissed directors, who applied for a preliminary injunction against the mayor and A. Lincoln Acker and Sheldon Potter, their successors in office, restraining them from exercising the duties of their respective offices and restraining the mayor and all other city employees from aiding them in carrying out such injunction. Judge Ralston granted a temporary restraining order and fixed next Monday morning as the time for the defendants to show cause why the injunction should be made permanent. The attorneys for the ousted directors lost no time in the preparation of the papers to be served on the defendants. As soon as the mayor's advisers had learned of the action of the county court they prepared to take the case to the state supreme court. The new directors were in office about two hours.

Regarding the injunction Mr. Weaver said: "I am still the mayor of the city and I mean to exercise all the rights of my office. The injunction cannot prevent me doing my duty."

As an evidence of the view the mayor takes of the situation he ordered this afternoon that matters pertaining to the two departments requiring immediate action be brought to his notice at once, thereby assuming personal charge of those branches of the city government pending the outcome of the legal complications. The leaders of the organization were in conference all day and conferences were held tonight. One of the most important gatherings of the day was that held in the office of United States Senator Pearson, where State Insurance Commissioner Israel Durham, the Republican organization leader, met all the ward leaders. The committee of nine held a meeting today and arranged for a mass meeting to be held in the Academy of Music Friday night. Among the speakers will be former Postmaster General Smith and Bishop Coeditor Marcy-Smith of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Pennsylvania.

PRESBYTERIANS WANT SENATOR SMOOT EXPELLED

Fresno, Cal., May 24.—The protest of the anti-unionists was filed at the afternoon session of the Cumberland Presbyterian general assembly. It declared the belief of the protestants in the doctrine of the Cumberland church and that there is no authority for the proposed union, and that the plan proposed means simply the absorption of the Cumberland church into the larger body. It also says that the Presbyterian church has not complied strictly with the agreement to change its form of government and is not a unit in organizing union.

Drs. Templeton and Black, Judges Beal and Presidents Turner and Taylor were appointed to prepare a protest. The unionists also proposed to read a pastoral letter which they prepared and sent to the churches. A storm of protests arose from the anti-unionists, who were not willing even to have the letter read following their conciliatory policy. The unionists withdrew the proposition without reading.

With great enthusiasm the assembly received an announcement from President Black that Judge and Mrs. B. D. Rose of Curryville, Mo., had contributed $10,000 for Missouri Valley college.

A resolution was adopted dissolving the board of Sunday school and young people's work.

With great enthusiasm the assembly received an announcement from President Black that Judge and Mrs. B. D. Rose of Curryville, Mo., had contributed $10,000 for Missouri Valley college.

Only one business was transacted at the evening session, the delegates being in a hurry to get away. The assembly adjourned at an early hour with the best of feelings. The commissioners sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and the venerable moderator, who sails for Japan in a few days, pronounced the benediction.

FAILED GOLDFIELD BANK.

I. Hirschfeld Has Been Appointed Receiver.

Goldfield, Nev., May 24.—I. Hirschfeld has been appointed receiver of the Goldfield Bank & Trust company. His bonds have been placed at $500,000. J. H. Beal, cashier of the bank for whom a warrant has been issued has been located; also Davis. The following telegram was received today from P. L. Burton, who is under arrest at San Francisco: "I shall pursue to the bitter end the man or men who have sworn out warrants or who have accused me wrongfully. I am Young's legal adviser, and came here to close a Wisconsin deal for $300,000, all of which I did. The bank securities are ample to protect liabilities."

Los Angeles, Cal., May 24.—F. E. Davis of this city, who owned a majority of the stock in the wrecked bank at Goldfield, said today that he would at once proceed to that place and endeavor to effect an equitable settlement with the depositors. He asserted that they would not lose a cent of their money. He explained his connection with the bank by saying that he invested in the bank stock and accepted the position of director, believing in the future of Goldfield and trusting implicitly in the honor of President Young and Cashier Beal. He did not know Burton, Mr. Davis, who is a well known lawyer, has lived here for 14 years. He will lose about $20,000 by the failure.

Mill at Lahaina Working.

Honolulu, May 24, 4 p. m.—The mill at Lahaina is again working. The police have taken charge of the laborers' camp, ousting the Japanese, who have not returned to work. The strike, it is believed, is practically over.

Gov. Carter, in a special message to the legislature, states that the outbreak shows the need of an appropriation for the national guard as he originally recommended but which the legislature has shown a disposition not to make. He also asks an additional appropriation of $2,000 for expenses already incurred at Lahaina.

CARNEGIE HERO FOUND.

Initial Awards Made, Nine Cases Favorably Acted On.

Pittsburgh, May 24.—At a meeting today of the Carnegie hero fund committee, the initial awards were made. Nine cases were acted favorably upon. Three widows whose husbands lost their lives in the performance of acts of heroism were cared for by the commission, and in one case a money grant was made to a heroine for educational purposes. The commission made a grant of $10,000 for the relief of the dependents on the victims of the Brooklyn, Mass., disaster. A total amount of $12,000 was disbursed by the commission. Since the establishment of the fund on April 15, 1904, to May 14, 1905, a total of 307 cases have been acted upon. Of these, 149 have been granted, 159 are awaiting investigation, and 9 have been granted.

WIDOW SUES MILLIONAIRE.

Katherine Poillon Wants Quarter of Million from W. G. Brokaw

New York, May 24.—Damages aggregating a quarter of a million dollars as compensation for alleged breach of promise of marriage are asked by Mrs. Katherine Poillon in a suit against W. G. Brokaw, the millionaire club man, which was begun in the supreme court here today. Eminent counsel secured witnesses, many of them people of prominence from distant parts of the country, and a packet containing more than 200 letters alleged by the plaintiff to have been written by Brokaw will figure in the case. The authenticity of the letters upon which the suit is largely based, is denied by Brokaw's counsel.

Former Gov. Black and former Judge Olcott appeared for the plaintiff while Mr. Brokaw's chief counsel was former Asst. Dist. Atty. McIntyre. Justice Gildersleeve presided. Both the plaintiff and defendant were in court. Mrs. Poillon accompanied by her sister and Mr. Brokaw by four friends, came with him in a big touring automobile.

Several letters in the case are addressed "My dear wife to be."

Mrs. Poillon came here from Troy, N. Y., a few years ago, and was divorced from her first husband.

When the court adjourned until tomorrow only one juror had been selected.

DEFAULTER SMITH.

Alleged a King of Bankers Operated With Him.

San Francisco, May 24.—The Bulletin today says:

"It is definitely known that a gigantic ring operated with Edward J. Smith, the defaulting cash collector, the past year, day was sentenced to 10 years in Folsom."

"The ring was composed of bankers of San Francisco, who through a dishonest deal with Smith, gambled with enormous sums of the city's money."

"Smith pleaded guilty in Judge Lawrence's court yesterday to saving the banks from serious financial embarrassment or, perhaps, complete collapse."

"He took his punishment at the hands of the bankers who had been interested with him and who knew that trial of the case would bring out all the ruinous facts."

"The bankers went to Smith and borrowed from him vast sums. The money was used in speculation for quick returns. Smith's compensation was 2 per cent interest on the money he allowed the banks to use. The loans were made a few days at a time, but after, when the deals in which the financial men risked the city's money went wrong, they were not repaid for months. At times during the three years of Smith's incumbency the amount out in private speculation exceeded a million dollars."

GERMAN FLEET SOCIETY.
Emperor Sends Telegram Strongly Disapproving Its Program.

Berlin, May 25.—The newspapers this morning print the substance of a telegram which was sent by Emperor Wilhelm to Gen. Mongs, one of the highest active directors of the German fleet society, which led to the resignation of the general from the management of the society. In his telegram the emperor expresses to the management his serious disapproval of its announced program and its agitation therefor, and says he is as little in harmony with this program as are the numerous members of the society who have lately withdrawn because of said program. The emperor therefore orders that the agitation conducted by the society shall henceforth keep within the bounds of the program outlined by Admiral von Tirpitz, secretary of the navy, estimates before the appropriations committee of the reichstag on Feb. 15, 1904, that the events of the Russo-Japanese war had shown the readiness of the foundation of the principle of Germany's naval policy, namely, that the strength of a fleet lay in heavily armored ships. The emperor regards any other activity of the society as an encroachment upon his authority as commander-in-chief of the navy.

HERE AT HOME.

Salt Lake City Citizens Gladly Testify.

It is testimony like the following that has placed "the old Quaker Remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Salt Lake City citizen:

Mrs. Alice Hardman of 272 west Eighth South, says: "If attacks of bearing down pain directly below the kidneys, always worse in the morning if I had overexerted myself the day previous and always in evidence if I stooped and which sometimes were so pronounced across the small of my back and over the hips that I was hardly able to get around; if these are any indications of kidney complaint then I had it for four or five years. Advertisements about Doan's Kidney Pills convinced me that there might be something extra in their composition, and induced me to go to the F. J. Hill Drug Co. store for a box. I found the results promised to be as represented. They gradually relieved the pain in my back and hips until an acute attack disappeared."

A NOVEL AND STARTLING EXPERIENCE.

The cut illustrates the recent remarkable experience of Richard Creedon, a workman employed in the construction of the rapid transit tunnel under the East River between Brooklyn and Manhattan. Creedon was engaged in an air chamber at the Brooklyn end in which there was a pressure of twenty-five pounds to the square inch. There was a terrific explosion, and without a word of warning the astounded man was blown through the bed of soft mud which forms the river bottom and up through the water and sent spinning into the air. As he came down into the water again two men who happened to be standing on a dock near by threw him a rope. He was so stunned and surprised that he found it difficult to accept the aid, but he finally seized the rope and was towed to shore. Except for a slight scratch on the forehead he was uninjured.

Juggling With Dynamite

Is no more dangerous than to neglect kidney disorders. Foley's Kidney Cure corrects irregularities and has cured many severe cases after other treatment has failed. It builds up the worn out tissues and restores health and vigor. "I was troubled with kidney complaint for about two years," writes A. H. Davis of Mt. Sterling, Iowa, "but two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure effected a permanent cure." Sold by F. J. Hill Drug Co.
